Guided TEST

PART 1 (2 questions)

In this part, candidates look at a picture which shows people doing different things. Above and below there are people's names. Candidates listen to a dialogue between an adult and a child and draw lines from the names to the correct person in the picture. Let's give it a try ...

Listen and draw lines. There is one example.

PART 2 (2 questions)

This is a simple note-taking exercise, in which candidates hear a conversation between two people. There is one picture to set the context, and a comprehension question for each item. Each answer is either a name or a number. The numbers dictated can be written as digits or words. All names are spelled out letter by letter, and must be spelled correctly by the candidates. Tip! Practise spelling words. Let's give it a try...

Read the question. Listen and write a name or a number.
There are two examples.

Example

What is the boy's name? Carl

1. How old is Carl? _____

2. What is Carl's family name? _____

Guided TEST

PART 3 (2 questions)

This part consists of five questions, each one followed by a 3-option multiple choice answer with pictures. Candidates listen to the information given in five separate dialogues and tick the correct picture. There is one example at the beginning.
Tip! Make sure you answer the question after the speaker finishes. Usually the correct answer comes after a negative word (No, not, but ...). Let's give it a try...

Listen and tick (✔) the box. There is one example.

Where is Walter?

A ☑

B ☐

C ☐

1. Which is Antony's book?

A ☐

B ☐

C ☐

PART 4 (2 questions)

In this part there is one large picture, and in it there are a number of examples of the same object. The candidate has to identify a certain object by listening to details of its position, and then colour it in correctly. The information is given in a dialogue between an adult and a child. Tip! Make sure you know the colours and the prepositions to do well in this part. Let's give it a try...

Listen and colour. There is one example.

Guided TEST

PART 1 (2 questions)

In part 1 the candidate reads sentences. There are five statements, each followed by a picture and the candidate has to place a tick in a box if the statement matches the picture and a cross if it does not.
Tip! The pictures show either singular or plural objects. Let's give it a try!

Look and read. Put a tick (✔) or a cross (✘) in the box.
There is one example.
Example

This is a horse. ✔

1.

These are eggs. ☐

2.

These are trainers. ☐

PART 2 (2 questions)

In part 2 candidates look at a picture and five statements some of which correctly describe the picture and some which do not. Candidates write 'yes' or 'no' next to each sentence.
Tip! Look at the picture carefully before you start. Let's give it a try!

Look and read. Write yes or no. There is one example.

Example

There are two balls in the picture. no

1. The children are happy. _____

2. The parents are playing a game. _____

Guided TEST

PART 3 (2 questions)

In part 3 there are five pictures of objects, each followed by the word for the object given as jumbled letters. The candidate must write the word for each object.
Tip! The number of the lines is the same as the number of the letters of the world you are looking for. Let's give it a try!

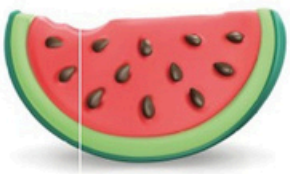

Look at the pictures. Look at the letters. Write the words.

s t r a w b e r r y

1.

_ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _

2.

_ _ _ _ _ _

PART 4 (2 questions)

In part 4 candidates read a text and look at the words with pictures in a box below. They copy the correct words into each one of the gaps. There are two extra words which candidates should not use.
Tip! First read the whole passage. Then start reading sentence by sentence. Complete your answers and then read the passage again to make sure that you haven't made any mistakes. Let's give it a try!

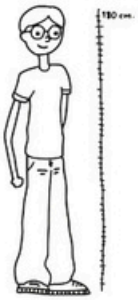

Read this. Choose a word from the box. Write the correct word next to numbers 1–2. There is one example.
